TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Harriet Tubman and Frederick Douglass are among the most famous freedom seekers who escaped from slavery, and they both lived in Upstate New York. On this tour we will start in New York and continue into Canada to reflect and explore the footsteps of escaped slaves and the abolitionists who assisted them in gaining their freedom. September is National Underground Railroad Month which is the month chosen to honor both Frederick Douglass and Harriet Tubman. However, we have moved the travel dates to October to capture the excellent scenery of Fall Foliage (we hope!).
